

SPEAKER: DAVID BLAKE, GEORGIA DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES DIVISION OF AGING SERVICES FORENSIC SPECIAL INITIATIVES UNIT

TITLE: INTRODUCTION TO ELDER ABUSE FOR INVESTIGATORS

Mr. Blake is a Financial Forensic Specialist with the Georgia Department of Human Services (DHS) Division of Aging Services Forensic Special Initiatives Unit (FSIU). After serving in the US Army from 1974 to 1981 as a combat Infantryman, and Military Police Sergeant, Mr. Blake joined the DeKalb County Department of Public Safety Bureau of Police Services and worked in the Uniform Division, Criminal Investigations Division, Special Investigations Division Narcotics Unit, Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) Task Force, and the White-Collar Crime Computer Forensics Unit. In 2002, Mr. Blake moved over to the Stone Mountain Judicial Circuit DeKalb County District Attorney's Office as the Deputy Chief Investigator over the White-Collar Crime Elder Exploitation and Paralegal Unit. In addition to expanding the White-Collar Crime Unit, Mr. Blake developed in-house computer forensic capabilities to improve the processing of digital evidence before retiring in 2010 and joining the GA DHS. Mr. Blake is an Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE) Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE), a National White Collar Crime Center (NW3C) Certified Economic Crimes Forensic Examiner (CECFE), an International Association of Computer Investigative Specialists (IACIS) Certified Electronic Evidence Collection Specialist (CEECS), a State of Georgia Peace Officer Standards and Training Council (POST) Certified Instructor, and is the co-developer of and principal Instructor for the GA DHS At-Risk Adult Crime Tactics (ACT) Specialist certification course.

SPEAKER: SERGEANT JAMES HOOS, COMMANDER, ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT AVIATION UNIT

TITLE: LEGAL CONSIDERATIONS IN THE USE OF DRONES FOR INVESTIGATIVE PURPOSES

Sergeant James Hoos has been with the City of Atlanta Police Department for 19 years and has been a Sergeant for the last 9 of those years. He spent most of his career in Zone 3 Patrol and Zone 3 CID. Five years ago, Sergeant Hoos was chosen by the Chief of Police to command the City's Aviation Unit. Sergeant Hoos is in charge of overseeing all daily aviation patrol, special event details, Presidential Motorcades as well as all Helicopter Appearance requests. He is the FAA's Point of Contact for the Atlanta Police Department and is stationed out of Hartsfield Jackson International Airport. Sergeant Hoos was the Aviation Commander for the 2019 Superbowl, where he oversaw direct air patrol for the City of Atlanta along with the assisting Air Units including the FBI, ATF, DEA, and GSP. Sergeant Hoos has his Rotorcraft Private Pilot License and is in his final completion hours for his Rotorcraft Commercial License. He also has his PART 107 Commercial Drone License, which is required to operate most Drones. He has completed the Drone Unit Manager Training through the Airborne Public Safety Association. Sergeant Hoos has been tasked with assisting the City of Atlanta Police Department in their implementation and start of their Drone Program. Sergeant Hoos has completed numerous training courses and hours on the operation of drones and the laws that govern the use of personal and privately-owned drones. He is an expert in Flight Airspace, and the FAA's guidelines for all types of aircrafts including the use of drones.

SPEAKERS: CARYN S. FENNEL AND LACEY BRIASCO, ATTORNIES WITH THE LAW FIRM OF CARYN S. FENNEL

TITLE: CRITICAL ANALYSIS OF COMPLEX CUSTODY & PARENTAL ALIENATION

ISSUES: A DIFFERENT TYPE OF INVESTIGATIVE LITIGATION

Caryn S. Fennell has over twenty-four years of professional and executive management experience, including service in the United States Army. As an education advocate, Ms. Fennell owns and manages The Law Firm of Caryn S. Fennell, soon rebranding as Fennell, Briasco & Associates. The firm was opened on November 9, 2010 and has three locations, in Woodstock, Marietta, and Alpharetta, Georgia. The firm has five attorneys who serve the needs of clients in the areas of Family, Criminal, and Probate Law, in the . North Metro Atlanta suburbs of Cobb, Cherokee, Bartow, Dawson, Paulding, Forsyth, Fulton, and Pickens Counties.

Ms. Fennell specializes in complex custody matters and has a passion for parental alienation and parental rights cases. Ms. Fennell is most proud of her firm's ability to draw upon over 85 collective years of vast professional and legal experience and adeptly care for the unique needs of every client served. Her firm has an excellent reputation for aggressive case investigation, persistent advocacy, and implementing a very reasonable fee structure for clients. Ms. Fennell personally reviews every case in detail and develops a customized legal strategy for each client. The firm and its staff are recognized as one of the most client-centered offices in the north Metro Atlanta area.

Attorney Lacey Briasco is licensed to practice law in the Georgia Courts, including Magistrate, Juvenile, Probate, State, and Superior Courts. She is also a certified Guardian ad Litem, and accepts Superior Court appointments for contested custody and visitation cases. Attorney Briasco completed her undergraduate studies at Kennesaw State University, where she received a Bachelor's degree in Political Science. She then enrolled in Atlanta's John Marshall Law School, and earned her Juris Doctor Degree, graduating toward the top of her class. Her legal education focused heavily on Family Law and Immigration matters in the Atlanta Area, including an international training program in Brazil.

Lacey has accumulated considerable professional acumen starting as an Associate at Henrickson & Sereebutra, LLC, in Paulding County, Georgia, and now as a Litigation Specialist for The Law Firm of Caryn S. Fennell in Woodstock, Georgia. She specializes in complex custody and divorce cases, and generalizes in Probate Guardianships, Conservatorships, and Estate matters. Also, as a military spouse, she applies her deep understanding of military life and sacrifice to serve her clients in the armed services in the areas of Family and Estate law matters.

Attorney Briasco has successfully closed hundreds of cases in her specialty areas since joining the Georgia State Bar Association, and has earned a reputation of being a highly focused and competent litigator in the local community. She proudly serves client's in Bartow, Cobb, Cherokee, Forsyth, Fulton, Pickens, and Paulding Counties.