

Michael Rundles' Bio

Michael Rundles is employed by Southern Professional Investigations. He has 28 years of law enforcement experience and he retired from the Georgia Bureau of Investigation (GBI) after 22 years of state service. Mr. Rundles worked general investigations, narcotics, and was trained as a profiler. He did internships with the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE), South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (SLED), Ontario Provincial Police (OPP), and the FBI profiling unit at Quantico, VA.

Mr. Rundles was promoted to Assistant Special Agent in Charge where he supervised the Appalachian Drug Task Force and the State Health Care Fraud Control Unit.

Mr. Rundles has a BS degree in Criminal Justice from Brenau College and a Master of Public Administration degree from Columbus State University. He is a P.O.S.T. certified instructor. Mr. Rundles is an adjunct instructor for the Georgia Public Safety Training Center where he has taught Interviews and Interrogations and he currently teaches Forensic Statement Analysis. He has taught Scientific Content Analysis (SCAN) all over the southeast for Laboratory for Scientific Interrogation (LSI).