

Angus S. Reed
MEd, DAAS, ACEM<sup>GA</sup>, FRSPH, LPI
404-276-9828
angussreed@gmail.com

I am an internationally recognized expert in environmental health and safety with 50+ years of experience. I am an Investigator, Journalist, and Trainer specializing in investigations, emergency management, jail conditions, critical infrastructure and safety.

I have a BA in Biology from Franklin College and a master's in health education from the U. of Cincinnati plus a year of doctoral studies in Vocational Education. I have a Graduate Certificate in Critical Infrastructure from Texas A&M University. I have completed over 180+ (3500+ hours) short-term technical courses. I am an Adjunct Professor of Environmental Health Science at Eastern Kentucky University and I have published over 25 articles on health and safety related topics in "American Jails", "Sheriff", "Journal of Environmental Health", "PI" and other professional journals.

I served as the Emergency Planner for the Department of Watershed Management, City of Atlanta, responsible for preparing emergency plans for a water/sewer system serving over 1.2 million people. I previously served 7 years as the Environmental Health Coordinator for the Fulton County Sheriff, Atlanta, GA, I spent 20 years with the Food and Drug Administration as an Investigator and Training Officer. While at FDA I was the Plant Sanitarian for E. Kahn's & Sons, Cincinnati, OH, and a Sanitarian with the Clermont Co. Health Dept., Batavia, OH.

In Emergency Management and Homeland Security, I am a Georgia Advanced Certified Emergency Manager. I am a qualified FEMA All-Hazards Safety Officer and an authorized instructor for the FEMA L-954 "All-Hazard Safety Officer" course, DHS Incident Command System (ICS100-400) courses and the NMT/EMRTC courses.

I attended the Hamilton County Police Academy in Cincinnati, OH. I was a Reserve Deputy with the Hamilton Co. Sheriff's Office, a Ranger (LE) with the Hamilton Co. Park District, a Police Officer (PT) with the Colerain Twp. P.D. and a contract Diplomatic Security Inspector (P/T) with the U.S. Dept. of State. I am a Georgia Licensed (Armed) Private Investigator. I have been associated with the Kehoe Group for six years.