

George Taylor Bio

George Taylor is a retired Law Enforcement Agent after a tenure of 26 years with the Federal Government. In June 2013 George retired from traveling worldwide as a Counter-Terrorism Agent with the Department of Homeland Security. Prior to Homeland Security in 2002 he was with The United States Customs Service working Narcotic Interdiction in South Florida. Assisting in joint activities with the CIA, FBI, Secret Service and many other National and International Law Enforcement Agencies and Military.

In 2006, George obtained his Georgia Private Investigator License and owns and operates Affair Investigations / AFPI Global Investigations in Marietta, Georgia which specializes in conducting surveillance in mostly Domestic Cases, Hard to Find Locates and Insurance Fraud. He has been a member of GAPPI since 2007 and has been called upon by many GAPPI members to assist and advise in cases throughout the local area.

Some of George Taylor's noted accomplishments:

Present GAPPI Board Member at Large from 2015 to Present

Featured on the Jan. 2019 Cover of East Cobber Magazine for helping GA Families.

*Present Board Member, Director of Security, at the Noel Penn Foundation

Featured in Christian Living Magazine (Work as a Private Investigator)

Featured in Atlanta Life Magazine (Work as a Private investigator)

Featured in Beacon Newspaper (Work as a Private investigator)

Participated on "Americas Most Wanted" television show (One of the Good Guys)

1st Place World Karate Championship-Fighting 1997

2nd Place World Karate Championship-Fighting 2007

Recognized in Worldwide of Who's Who of Private Investigators 2013

Proud Member of the following Associations:

GAPPI, WAD, ASIS, BBB Accredited A+ Rating