

Susan Savino Bio

Susan Savino has been a private investigator since early 2013. She is an active member of GAPPI and NCISS and believes in continually learning and honing skills, adapting to the ever-changing industry climate. To that end, she attends conferences, webinars, quarterly training sessions, and reads books and magazines pertinent to our profession. An introvert by nature, Susan enjoys working in the field and juggles working cases with maintaining office hours and life as wife and mother. She enjoys finding people and facts and specializes in custody cases and sexual misconduct in the workplace.

When not in the field or office, Susan volunteers with Canine Pet Rescue (CPR), a 501c3 non-profit animal rescue organization focusing on saving German Shepherds from high kill shelters in the South. She has spoken at various “Lunch & Learns” and Chamber of Commerce events around Atlanta and women’s groups on topics from Situational Awareness, Active Shooter preparedness and Basic Self Defense. Her agency has volunteered at Snellville Public Safety Night for the last several years and Susan has had the privilege of singing our National Anthem for the event in 2018 and 2019. Her hobbies include writing music, singing, playing various instruments, reading, power-walking, birding, movies, and loving on her own rescued shepherds.
