

Holly Waltman Bio

Holly Waltman is a passionate advocate and licensed attorney in the state of Georgia. Holly is a legal expert with significant experience in criminal drug cases, major felony cases, and federal civil asset forfeitures. As a graduate of Georgia Southern University, John Marshall Law School, and the Georgia Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers- Bill Daniels Trial Advocacy Program, Ms. Waltman has received several distinctions for her tenacious work, successful track record, and relentless commitment to her clients. She is a Georgia Rising Star, considered as one of the top 40 attorneys under 40 in the State of Georgia by The National Trial Lawyers Association, and was selected by Attorney and Practice Magazine as one of Georgia's top 10 Attorneys in criminal defense. This trial attorney has vast and various knowledge of the criminal justice system through her work at The DeKalb County District Attorney's Office as a prosecutor, the State Court of Henry County as a defender of her client's rights, and an Assistant Conflict Defender for the Stone Mountain Judicial Circuit where she managed two Superior courtrooms simultaneously.