

Bruno Pavlicek Bio

Bruno Pavlicek has over 25 years of law enforcement and private sector corporate security experience, mostly in financial and non-traditional organized crime investigations. He is a certified fraud examiner and certified forensic interviewer and holds a PhD in psychology.

Bruno has served as an adjunct professor of fraud examination, forensic interviewing, and criminology at two universities. Bruno developed a professional certificate program in anti-fraud and forensic interview investigations through Kennesaw State University, where he teaches at as well. Previously, Bruno has served as a Board Director and former President of the Georgia state chapter of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE). Additionally, he served with the National ACFE Higher Education Initiative Committee.

Currently, Bruno is employed in the telecommunications industry as a Senior Corporate Security Investigator. He also serves as Regional Co-Chair for the South East Region Organized Retail Crime Investigator's Network.

Jenna Weise Bio

Jenna Wiese is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE). Miss Wiese currently serves as Vice Chancellor for internal audit with the Board of Regents for the University System of Ga. Previously, Miss Wiese served as Deputy Inspector General for the Office of Georgia Inspector General (OIG), where she led and conducted investigations involving fraud, waste, abuse and corruption within the executive branch of state government. In addition to her investigative duties, Ms. Wiese served as OIG's Chief Financial Officer. Ms. Wiese has received advanced training in criminal and administrative investigations, fraud examinations, interviews and interrogations, contract and grant fraud examinations, public corruption, and a variety of other topics related to the anti-fraud profession.

Prior to her role with the Ga. OIG, Miss Weise worked in the City of Atlanta's City Auditor's Office as the Investigations Manager. Before this, she worked seven years in public accounting with two notable Atlanta based firms in positions of ever-increasing responsibility ranging from Systems Associate to Senior Auditor to Associate Vice President for Financial Reporting and Analysis.

Ms. Wiese is a Georgia Southern University graduate who holds a Master of Accountancy with a concentration in Forensic Accounting and a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting with a Fraud Examination minor.