

Bio for Lyle Hendrick

Lyle began working as a private investigator in 1989 after serving as an officer in the US Army's Green Berets. He also spent 11 years Fluor Construction International working as senior security manager on mega projects before returning to South Carolina. A graduate of the University of South Carolina, he has a wide range of training, skills, and field experience in developing situational awareness and operational planning.

In addition to offering services in the private sector, Lyle serves as a volunteer subject matter specialist with the Richland County Sherriff's Department's, Critical Infrastructure Protection Unit. He has held leadership positions in the Central South Carolina Chapter of the American Society for Industrial Security beginning in 1991. And currently serves on the board for the South Carolina Chapter of InfraGard.