

Craig Brazeman – Founding PI

PROFILES • Comments Offon Craig Brazeman – Founding PI

Having been involved with hundreds of courtroom proceedings, Craig Brazeman founded PROFILES in 1996 with the purpose of providing a central source to assist with trial preparation and organization. Brazeman, a Licensed Private Detective and a Certified Process Server, has established PROFILES as a leading provider of indisputable evidence and uncontested service of process.

Having been chosen as the lone Investigator in Comcast's television series, Private Eyes, Brazeman was given the opportunity to see the general public's interest for what PROFILES brings to the courtroom. As PROFILES has grown, Brazeman has become a major asset to the Atlanta Volunteer Lawyer's Foundation and has received accolades for his participation in 2014 and 2015.

Craig Brazeman sees the industry as a nationwide collaborative resource for trained and licensed professionals in related fields providing cost effective evidence and support for anyone or entity who needs answers and assistance in times of despair.