

Mr. William Dallas NeSmith III

State Bar of Georgia

Deputy General Counsel for the State Bar of Georgia since 2014.

- Originally from Macon.
- Graduate of Mercer University with a Juris Doctor Degree from the Walter F. George School of Law at Mercer University.
- Served on the Investigative Panel for the State Disciplinary Board for the State Bar of Georgia (now the State Disciplinary Board) and was a member for seven years. Served as Chair.
- Formerly a county attorney in two counties, city attorney in three cities, and represented several other governmental authorities.
- He was formerly a municipal court judge in eight cities and is currently the judge in Ideal Georgia. District 3 representative for the Georgia Council of Municipal Court Judges.
- He is currently teaching Business Law and the Legal Environment of Business at Georgia Southwestern for the School of Business and Computing. He has been teaching at the college level since 1999.
- Bill regularly teaches continuing legal education courses in ethics and professionalism for the State Bar of Georgia and continuing education courses for the Institute for Continuing Judicial Education.
- Parliamentarian for the State Bar of Georgia.